Day Six // Saturday

On this day, Jesus' body lay in the tomb, as His disciples mourned His death. It must have seemed like all hope was lost, that their Lord and Savior had been taken away from them forever. Yet even in our darkest moments, when we feel like all hope is lost, Jesus is still with us, and His love is stronger than death. Even when it seems like God is silent, He is still at work. Even when it seems like all hope is lost, He is still in control.

Let us remember the words of J.I. Packer, who said, "The resurrection completes the inauguration of God's kingdom...It is the decisive event demonstrating that God's kingdom really has been launched on earth as it is in heaven." Let us hold onto the hope of the resurrection, even in our darkest moments.

It may be Saturday, but Sunday's coming! The King of Kings and Lord of Lords would soon rise from the dead and leave a clear message to all who would dare to believe in Him:

"Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?'"
